

2020 Floyd Yoga Jam Volunteer Overview

Volunteers help create the FLOYD YOGA JAM festival each Labor Day weekend! We count on the service of over 100 volunteers to help make Floyd Yoga Jam the most incredible, transformative yoga and music festival on the east coast. Volunteer opportunities include checking patrons into the festival, providing maps, schedules, and information about classes and artists, helping to keep the festival site clean and beautiful, merchandising retail for Floyd Yoga Jam, providing assistance to yoga instructors & patrons during classes, providing massage for artists, staff, and instructors, and many other opportunities for service, connections, and fun.

Each year, the Floyd Yoga Jam has grown in size, and volunteer positions have been filling up more quickly. We accept volunteer applications until all shifts have been filled. Seva is a Sanskrit term that reflects the spiritual growth and transformation that occurs in the service of giving back to one's community. The Floyd Yoga Jam volunteer experience is the perfect opportunity to practice Karma Yoga, the yoga of service. The Floyd Yoga Jam tribe cares deeply about service, our own and yours, and we are always striving to enhance the volunteer experience. We truly appreciate each beautiful being who becomes a member of our Floyd Yoga Jam family. We are very excited to have you join us in this transformational festival adventure!
